

PREA ANNUAL REPORT 2020

HISTORY

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) was passed in 2003 with unanimous support from both parties in Congress. The purpose of the act was to “provide for the analysis of the incidence and effects of prison rape in Federal, State, and local institutions and to provide information, resources, recommendations and funding to protect individuals from prison rape.” (Prison Rape Elimination Act, 2003).

George Junior Republic in Pennsylvania became compliant with PREA regulations in November 2014. The agency continues to evaluate policies and procedures regarding all aspects of PREA regulations.

George Junior Republic in Pennsylvania continues to address prevention of sexual abuse and harassment through PREA training for all employees, as well as education of all youth upon admission to the facility. In addition, George Junior Republic in Pennsylvania maintains memorandums of understanding with AWARE of Mercer County to provide youth with victim advocate support as needed and Mercer County Children’s Advocacy Center for expert investigation for legal purposes when needed.
